A statement about the family and financial position of the petitioners, number of children, age, names, sex, of the aforesaid. The aforesaid has furthermore brought 1, a record of the receipts, that he is responsible for no further taxes and community funds.

2, a record of the royal Friedensge-richts, that he is encumbered with no guardianship

3, a ship's contract, legally sound

The respectful undersigned Ludwig Leonhard, farmhand of Jettenbach ventures to put before the most honorable governing body herewith, that he himself has determined, to emigrate with his family to North America, in which he believes, that there the living conditions for his family could be better than in Europe, and asks himself for the full consent of the most honorable royal Landcommissariat for freedom from that place, and requests transportation for this undertaking from the Bavarian Consul of the Ports of Departure | : Havre or Bremen: |

If the petitioner will travel through France, then he must bring with him a copy of the passport in addition to a property record, which has been previously recorded in the official paper of 1836, page 446.
