IMPORTANT DATES IN ITS HISTORY

P. J. SCHOEN, Sr.

- 1840—Founding of the Church, August 2, by Rev. C. Sans, and Parochial School, about the same time, by the brothers, Jacob and John Ueber.
- 1842—Congregation incorporated under name of "German Orthodox Evangelical Congregation of New Orleans and Lafayette," March 23, 1842.
- 1843—First Church building erected on present site, corner Port and Graps (now Burgundy) streets.
- 1843-1845—Rev. Sans leaving for another field, a division occurred, Rev. R. Korndoerfer serving one and Rev. J. E. Schneider the other faction.
- 1844—The two factions reunited under Rev. Chr. Schrenck, serving until 1848.
- 1848—Rev. Jacob Buehler assumed charge February, 1848, and remained until May, 1856.
- 1855—Rev. C. G. Moedinger, assistant pastor from December, 1855, to June, 1856.
- 1856—June 28, Rev. Moedinger succeeds Rev. Buehler as pastor of the congregation.
- 1858—A new Constitution is adopted, the congregation assuming the name of "The First German Evangelical Lutheran Congregation of New Orleans, La."
- 1860—The old Church, School and Parsonage destroyed by fire in April, and a new and larger Church edifice, with schoolrooms in basement, dedicated in December; new Parsonage also built.
- 1866—Founding and incorporation of "Orphan Asylum Association" of the congregation.
- 1867—Organization of the Sunday School.
- 1868—Mr. Jacob Broders becomes teacher of Parochial School.
- 1870—Mr. H. L. Huettmann (1870-1871), first Missouri Synod teacher called.
- 1872—A new charter and constitution adopted and congregation incorporated as "The German Evangelical Lutheran, St. Paul's Congregation, U. A. C., of New Orleans, La."
- 1874—Pastor and congregation become members of the "Missouri Synod."
- 1875—Largest catechumen class in history of the congregation: 119.
- 1883—Rev. J. M. Maisch, first superintendent of Bethlehem Orphan Asylum, is called as assistant pastor (1883-1884). "Ladies' Aid Society" organized in November.
- 1883—Introduction of Regular English services.
- 1884—Rev. G. C. Franke becomes assistant pastor (1884-1887), charged especially with the English work.
- 1887—Rev. Franke having followed another call, and Rev. Moedinger retiring from active work, the present pastor, G. J. Wegener, was installed November 13.
- 1888—The "First English Congregation" having been organized, all English services are dropped at St. Paul's.
- 1889—February 5, the Church building is destroyed by fire. Rebuilt at once and dedicated September 15.
- 1890—Pastor C. G. Moedinger dies January 25, aged 58 years, 9 months and 14 days, having been with the congregation for over thirty-four years, and in active service more than thirty-one years.
- 1890—August 3 and 4, the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the congregation is celebrated.
- 1892—Concordia Young People's Association organized in April.
- 1893—Sunday, October 1, regular English services are again introduced.
- 1898—The "St. Paul's Ladies' Mission Society" founded February 25. English Sunday services permanently changed from 7:30 P. M. to 7:30 A. M., on Trinity Sunday.
- 1900—German religious instructions in school abolished.
- 1901—The word "German" dropped from name of congregation by amendment of charter.
- 1902—German catechetical instructions and confirmation discontinued.
- 1910—Adult Bible Class organized by Teacher Niermann.
- 1911—Teacher R. W. Wismar installed as Mr. Niermann's successor, September 3.
- 1913—The Parochial School is made a Free School for all children of the congregation.
- 1914—Memorial windows are installed by individual members. First Chapel service September 6.
- 1915—During 1914 and 1915 nearly $7,000 was spent for interior and exterior improvements, and on August 1 and 2 the congregation celebrated its seventy-fifth anniversary.
- 1915—September 29, a violent hurricane destroyed the Church steeple and part of the roof, doing great damage to the interior. Several thousand dollars was required for restoration work.
- 1920—The congregation is making great strides in liquidating its remaining indebtedness of about $1,500.
