N.B.! These persons no. 2314 had been married already in 1881 by Rev. Mödinger, see p. 131, no. 2065. The bride had been maliciously deserted by her first husband whose name was Busch and she believed that he had died a long time ago. When she, without obtaining a divorce married A. H. Hellmers. Recently she heard that her first husband still lived somewhere. For that reason, the lawyer from whom information had been obtained, stated that she would now be obliged to re-marry her second husband, if her marriage is to be legal. The divorce was obtained and the marriage was legally confirmed by performing the ceremony by me again.                      (G.J. Wegener, ev. luth. Pastor)
