

Now some years have passed
 And their families grown fast,
 They've met the best beans
 And they've snacked down the isle
 They've even gone South and helped Slight crocodiles.

XI

As I said from the start, it's been thirty-four
 And now is the time they should not have a fear.
 Yet the banks they are closed,
 And twice more they must go,
 And watch a proud sevier receive a small
 Just something I think to paper the room <sup>hall</sup>

XII

Though their lives had some trials, yet I'm pretty darn sure,
 That will all lead a life,
 That's true-blue and more.