

Sixty years of married life.
(dedicated)

to Mr & Mrs Levi H. Root.

Ten years have passed since last we gathered here
to celebrate the lives of these two loyal friends,
Ten years together, with all the stress & toil,
That life has given, that duties well done send.

These years have brought their problems & their joys,
Their times of sorrow, which none can ever escape.
But hand in hand they've traveled on together
With courage brave to master any fate.

They have not journeyed all this way alone.
For children, God's greatest gift to man,
It has lingered ever near in love & tender care,
Ready to give a needed helping hand.
