ADDRESS REPLY TO
COMMANDING OFFICER
QUARTERMASTER DEPOT
AND QUOTE FILE NO.

OUR HOME LODGE FAMILY.

We miss our dear ones in this new and pleasant home
For they are far away where their Christmas fires they tend.
But we are happy in the tho'tno matter where they stay.
The roots of friendship twine around the hearts of new found friends.

And so we're going to laugh and sing, and ring the Christmas bells.
And gather round the Christmas tree, as in the days of yore,
And lift our Hearts in thankfulness that we live in a land
Where peace and love and christian faith shall stand forever more.

We'r quite a family you see
That gathers round our table
From buisy Margarets Kindly ways,
As she serves the food that's stable.

To Mrs Bathricks cherry smile
That we all hold so dear
Who'll Gently raise the flag of peace,
Whenever Clouds appear.

Here comes our Mrs. Newberry.
What licious fruit her name suggest
And brings you thot's of summer time
When things are at their best.

Then Mrs. Foster steps in next,
She gives a helping hand.
And carries trays and fixes flowers,
And covers water bottles grand.

Pa Gillam, is a buisy man
He's up and off so steady
You scarcely see him through the day,
Except when lunch is ready.

And as for Ralph, why he's our baby.
The youngest of the flock.
The whole house he must supervise
And fill in time with talk.

Livingston, is a modest man
From him theres no self praise
He doesnt even tell us
When he gets a good big raise.
