

To Church, Sunday morning. Father, Johnie and Roy

Went, and left Lene and I with none to annoy,

But to Sunday school he would not let the boys stay.

As Mr. Lyons talked to long to suit him that day.

But next Sunday we rowed, that we'd all go and leave him

And let him get the dinner and keep house, for that reason.

On Monday, a letter I got from aunt Nean.

She has been out to Ithaca, and Sadie has seen.

She has a beautiful home, and most elegant gifts.
