Our Community Sing
Coronado

Oh! That is the place where we all like to be,
Where neighbors we meet, and many strangers we see,
Where we have such an evening of frolic and fun:
The meeting is over before it's fairly begun.
Where the Newells, and Deale, and Cole - I don't know,
Help keep the ball rolling and make it a go.
With Mrs. Covert and Trefon who sure do their part,
To charm all the audience when their music they start.
Then Mrs. Norton, so busy, who handles with care
The many announcements, for others to share,
Our Pastor and wife, by their presence do grace,
Through their smiles and their help, sweet charm to ^{this place} -
The Feiglers and Browns we welcome and love,
Their Ladies so fine were sure sent from above,
The men a benediction, with long years of praise
May we follow in their steps to pattern our ways.
And the young people; how fine, we need every one,
As we need sunshine and flowers, a day's work well done.
How they brighten the place, how their voices do ring,
As they vie with the birds in the songs that they sing.
There are many more friends, but we can't name them all,
Some large, some medium, some short and some tall,
