

Tom Brennan

A very helpful way is this
To make my call on you
But seeing you are so far away
It's the best that I can do

2

You like the people and the homage
That you receive each day,
After breakfasting at Sardis
To put on your little play.

3

I like your jolly pleasant puns
They put to flight the old man blues
For good clean fun is always wholesome,
And things like that the people choose.

4

I listen to your wicket programme
With mind that is some times vexed
And then I wonder to myself
What are you saying next.
